A letter to the council

Why I’m writing

Dear Sir or Madam, the bins on Elm Street haven’t been emptied since 3 March. This paragraph is long enough to be justified across several lines, so the spaces between its words are stretched by the word spacing operator, which a reader has to follow to see where one word ends and the next begins. Prices: 5 < 7 & 7 > 5; “quoted” and ‘single’; café, naïve, über and 20 €.

What I’d like

- Collection every week
- A bigger bin
- First, call me

Week	Bins	Emptied
1	2	no
2	2	yes

Page two

Yours faithfully,

Sam Lee